

COOKIE POLICY – PAGCRYPTO Last Updated: 02/14/2025

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 When you visit our website www.pagcrypto.finance, it may store or collect information on your web browser, primarily in the form of cookies. This information may be about you, your preferences, or your device and is used to ensure the website functions properly and provides an optimized experience. 1.2 This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, which ones we use, for what purpose, how to manage your preferences, and how to delete them from your browser. 1.3 For more information on how we handle your personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.

2. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

2.1 Cookies are small text files stored on your computer or mobile device when you access a website. They help websites recognize your device on future visits and may collect information about how you navigate, your preferences, and your location. 2.2 We use the term cookies to cover all similar technologies that collect data in this way. 2.3 The cookies used by PAGCRYPTO do not collect information that directly identifies the user but may be used to monitor website visits if the user accesses it through a communication sent by us (e.g., marketing emails).

3. LEGAL BASIS FOR THE USE OF COOKIES

3.1 The use of cookies by PAGCRYPTO is based on the following legal grounds under the General Data Protection Law (LGPD - Law No. 13,709/2018):

- Performance of a contract or preliminary procedures (Art. 7, V): For essential cookies that ensure website functionality.
- User consent (Art. 7, I): For analytical, functionality, and advertising cookies, which are only activated with user permission.
- Legitimate interest (Art. 7, IX): For cookies that enhance browsing experience, provided they do not infringe on users' rights and freedoms. 3.2 Users can manage or revoke their consent at any time, as described in Section 5: Managing Cookies.

4. WHAT TYPES OF COOKIES DO WE USE?

PAGCRYPTO uses cookies classified according to their purposes:

4.1 By Functionality

- Essential (necessary) cookies: Enable the website's operation and its core functions, such as login and security. Without these cookies, the website may not function correctly.
- Analytical cookies: Collect statistical information about site navigation, helping improve performance and user experience.

- Functionality cookies: Store user preferences, such as language and website theme, to personalize the experience.
- Advertising cookies: Target ads based on user interests and limit ad repetition.
- Third-party cookies: Installed by external partners to measure ad effectiveness and integrate functionalities from other services (such as Google login).

4.2 By Storage Duration

- Session cookies: Temporary cookies deleted when the user closes the browser.
- Persistent cookies: Remain on the user's device for a set period or until manually deleted.
